Capen Garden Walk Poster Competition

Prospectus

PLEASE READ ALL THE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

Overview

Submissions of original artwork are being accepted for use on the 2016 Samuel P. Capen Garden Walk posters.

Submission Guidelines

The University Heights Arts Association will host the competition and a related annual exhibition. Artwork may be in the form of a painting, photograph, drawing, illustration, digital art or mixed media art. Artwork must be original and creative. Clip art, pictures copied from magazines or other copyrighted images will not be accepted. If working digitally, the final (print quality) art/photo must be 300 dpi at 20 united inches (10 x 10 or 8 x 12 in., etc.) or larger. The design should be able to accommodate text but should NOT include any text on the artwork.

All entries are eligible for the "Beauty in Our Backyard" exhibition which will take place from June 25th-July 28th, 2016. The exhibition, held local venues as part of the University Heights Art Partnering Program, will host the top 25 selected works plus additional work as space allows. Work for the exhibition must be ready to hang, framed if necessary (no sawtooth hangers), at a minimum size of 20 united inches (10 x 10 or 8 x 12 in., etc.) and a maximum size of 60 united inches. A $100. prize will be awarded to the winner as well as wide area recognition. Additional prizes will be awarded to the second and third place winners. Entries are due by Saturday, January 23, 2015. Additional entries will be accommodated as space allows.

For each submission, please email up to five high quality .jpg images of the artwork to: information@uhartsgroup.com. Do not email a total of more than 15 mb. of images at a time. Submissions must also include the information below in the body of the email. Place "Garden Art Submission" in the subject line of your email.
