

Identifying Artists

The UHAA began its mission in April of 2013 with an exhaustive research of the artisans and arts entities in the University District/North Buffalo area. We identify the arts resources already here, then promote our talent, design public arts initiatives, collaborate with area businesses, expand arts markets, and integrate with the world around us.

Integrating the Arts

Our artists include writers, visual artists, musicians, actors, filmmakers, and mixed media artists. Opportunities continue to evolve for artists, as individuals or in collaboration with one another.

The University Heights Arts Association serves the geographic area from the Tri-Main Building to the Amherst town line, and from Eggert Road to Delaware Avenue. Memberships are also available for non-residents, businesses and families.

The seed for the arts in University Heights/ North Buffalo was planted with every artist, gallery, art business and non-profit organization committed to living or working here. It is more than a hundred musicians, writers, dancers, filmmakers and visual artists. It is galleries, children's groups, choirs, and community plays. The University Heights Arts Association identifies what exists, then fosters growth with respect to the community here.

“We need people who think with the creative side of their brains—people who have played in a band, who have painted...it enhances symbiotic thinking capabilities, not always thinking in the same paradigm, learning how to kick-start a new idea, or how to get a job done better, less expensively.”

—Annette Byrd, GlaxoSmithKline
