“Soil, Seeds & Secrets”

Prospectus

PLEASE READ ALL THE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

Project Summary. The purpose of this prospectus is to encourage fine artists, writers, photographers and gardeners to contribute their talents to the production of “Soil, Seeds & Secrets,” a book that will combine gardening information with art. The book will identify the most popular seeds and plants of the University-North Buffalo gardening community as well as surrounding neighborhoods. Slice of life vignettes, poetry, photography and gardening art will compliment this illustrated guide to planting and harvesting seeds and transplants.

Guidelines:

Eligibility. This production is open to:

- 1) illustrators, visual artists, photographers and writers
- 2) community gardeners
